In January 18th 2017, after the vote of all the municipal Councillor, the city of Ouistreham Riva-Bella launched an architects competition for the construction of the Franco-British Visitors Centre on Sword Beach, in Ouistreham Riva-Bella.

The name of the three teams designated for the next step of the competition have been announced this morning, Thursday April 4th during the press conference. We have also shown their references.

The three teams selected by the jury of the competition are :

Philéas, Architect (Casson Mann, scenograph)

Architectural and scenographic references (carried or out to be) : Mémorial Franco-britannique de Thiepval, Musée de la Citadelle de Verdun, Historial de la Vendée, Cité des civilisations du vin, Imperial War Museum (the renovation of a part of the permanent exhibition), Churchill War Room

Duncan Lewis, Architect (Ducks, scenograph)

Architectural and scenographic references (carried or out to be) : Lascaux 4 – International Centre for the parietal art, the School Jean Moulin, the House for the agglomeration of Lorient, Pôle d’astronomie du PACS de Vaulx-en-Velin, Piste des Géants de Toulouse, Musée du Louvre d’Abu Dhabi

John Lampros, Architect (Ducks, scenograph)

Architectural and scenographic references (carried or out to be) : Interpretation Center for the Canadian Memorial of Vimy, Interpretation Centre for the Australian Memorial of Villers-Bretonneux – Sir John Monash Centre, Visitors Centre in the American Cemetery of Colleville-sur-mer - Omaha Beach, Pôle d’astronomie du PACS de Vaulx-en-Velin, Piste des Géants de Toulouse, Musée du Louvre d’Abu Dhabi

For the « Pôle d’astronomie du PACS in Vaulx-en-Velin », « la Piste des Géants in Toulouse » and the « Musée du Louvre d’Abu Dhabi aux Émirats Arabes Unis », the architects called the same scenograph (Ducks).

The three candidates who were selected and will work for the next step of the competition during 3 months. After that, they must be able to propose a detailed plan of the building, some views, the scenography and a landscape integration. Moreover they must take into account the field, the localization and the constraints fixed by the City Council.

According to the Mayor of Ouistreham Riva-Bella « The european dimension of that project, the memory and the landscape integration are the most important things for the construction of the Visitors centre ».

The jury will meet again on July 13th for the designation of the winner. After that meeting, the City will have the final localization, the scenography and a view of the building of the Franco-British Visitors Centre.

Voting in City Council on Monday, January 16, 2017
Press conference on Wednesday 18th January 2017 at 16h

After the celebration of the 70th anniversary of the D-Day, the City of Ouistreham Riva-Bella has expressed its desire to put a new museum in Normandy. That new structure will be dedicated to the Franco-British relations. The scenography will present the history of that relations from the Middle Age to the present day. You will find just below the several key stages :

- Creation of work groups to carry out the project (Scientific Committee, Steering Committee ...) in September 2015,
- The writing of the Scientific and Cultural Project in February 2016 and the museography ; two documents validated by the City Council,
- A list of collections and content for the scenography of the Franco-British Visitors Centre, established by two specialized societies (Histo-Facto and Memoriae), in connection with the Scientific Committee,
- Recruitment of the society Viaculture by the City in August, 2016 in order to define the architectural, technical and financial program of the project.

Today, the missions of Viaculture are done, that's why the City Council will launch an architects competition.

For the presentation of that international project, the Mayor will explain its content, the characteristics and the timing.
