“Grandcopaise” ‘s Arrival, organized the Tourbouai Association of Bessin.

Built en 1949 at the shipyard Barbanchon et Douvet (Cherbourg, Lower-Normandy) following a plan dated 1934, the vessel, named at the time “Two Friends”, had been used as a fishing boat till 1988, when it was sold to a yachtsman. It was renamed “Franck Yannick”. After some works, it was abandoned at the port of Grandcamp, where it would even been once submerged by the tide. In July 1990, the “Old Ship’s Tackles Association” called “Tourbouai” was founded in the Bassin aerea. The Association bought and restored the old ship for the municipality of Grandcamp-Maisy, which left the 50% of its property rights to the Tourbouai, giving to it full authority concerning management and maintenance of the boat.
